“ Dwayne was like a Brother in our family to my sisters and me. He was often at the house, eating, acting crazy as usual, and just having fun. He had the siblings over for dinner and hangout times, and to just fellowship. This is a loss, a shock....and a pull on the heart. But, we know that ALL SOULS BELONG TO THE LORD. So, he is in Glory preparing to sing with the heavenly choir. He touched many, many lives.

“ Dwayne,
You were MY FRIEND, Colleague, and mentor (at the Rivers Casino). You were truly a unique individual who had a caring, giving and compassionate spirit. You had the ability to see the best in people, especially your students. Honesty was defiantly a characteristic that you lived by. You were given a GIFT from God with your music that you unselfishly shared with people near and far. The words that I will always smile when I hear them are I WON’T COMPLAIN!
