“ *Words can't express the heartbreak that I feel for all of us family and friends. You touched so many lives and was often bigger than life. We cried hard of your passing but laughed harder at all the crazy times we shared with you. Every cookout and every road trip will be our memories of you. Love you "cuz",- no brother and friend. “ Thank You. Your post is now pending approval.

Junior and Susie send all of our love and prayers to our family, it broke our hearts to hear about Freddy. We will miss his laugh and his smile, you how crazy he could be. One of the things we remember how needed a driver to help drive to Illinois to visit Susie family. And Freddy volunteered to help and we had the best time ever, it was one the best trip we have taken over the years. I have another one about going to Greenville South Carolina, but I better not mention that one!! So family know that although we can't be there with you, our hearts and prayers are. Stay and be blessed we love you Junior and Susie.
